

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF ANIMAL SCIENCE

THE REGINALD A. EMMERT ANIMAL SCIENCE ALUMNI ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP

CRITERIA

1. Fulltime students pursuing an undergraduate degree in the MSU College of Agriculture and Natural Resources, majoring in the Department of Animal Science with emphasis in Livestock Production
2. Demonstrate sound academic achievement by maintaining 2.5 average GPA
3. Demonstrate an intent to pursue a career in Livestock Production and related fields
4. Evidence of the involvement in community activities with demonstrated leadership abilities
5. Graduation from a high school located within the United States
6. Preference will be given to students who might not be able to attend college due to financial constraints

NUMBER AND AMOUNT

Generally, 4 to 6 scholarships between $500 and $1,000 per semester are awarded. The number and amount depend on endowment returns and pool of applicants.

SCHOLARSHIPS

ANS MAJORS

APPLICATION PROCESS

1. Complete a one page (Excel) application by downloading the application from www.ans.msu.edu/students/scholarships/animal\_science\_scholarships
2. Attach to the application a ONE page resume
3. Attach to the application a one page statement (12 pt font) addressing your career aspirations in the area of Livestock Production
4. Copy of MSU Transcripts that you may obtain from the Registrars' office, emailed to you
5. Submit hard copy to 1250 Anthony

TRACY RICH
1250 ANTHONY HALL
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY
EAST LANSING, MI 48824
richt@msu.edu
517.353.9227