

2017 BHEARD Scholar
Razak Abdul Salam

Profile

Country of Study:	Ghana
University:	KNUST
Department:	Crop and Soil Sciences
Student Position:	Graduate Research Assistant—M.S.
Home Country:	Ghana
Home Institution:	Ghana Education Service
Home Position:	Teacher
Mentored By:

Research Area: Advances on Seed Vigor Physiological and Genetic Mechanisms

BHEARD PROGRAM START DATE: August 2017

UNDERGRADUATE EDUCATION: BSc. Agriculture, KNUST

RESEARCH INTERESTS: Razak believes seed is one of the important asset mankind could ever have and it must be improved upon to meet the ever-changing needs of mankind. His want to be a part of the fight against seed and food insecurity in Ghana and Africa at large. His research will be on Advances on Seed Vigor Physiological and Genetic Mechanisms.

PERSONAL STATEMENT: Razak's goals are to become a seed scientist to help sanitize and revive the weak seed industry in Ghana.

WHEN I AM NOT WORKING I ENJOY: Razak enjoys training and guiding people to train at the gym.