

Leafcutter bees (Megachile spp.)

- Hairs beneath abdomen
- Nest in rotting logs, plant stems or bee condos
- Cut semi-circles of leaves for their nest
- Rapid fliers
- Size can vary from .4-1 inch

Photo by Nate Walton, MSU Extension

For more information go to pollinators.msu.edu

