Unlike other Meat and poultry retailers where you make your choices from across a butcher counter and choose your cuts through a glass, at Saad Wholesale you are welcomed right into our cooler which is our retail shop. It is nothing short of an experience reminiscent of butcher shops past. You can pick the lamb of your choice from our hanging racks, take it whole or have it cut your way. You can choose the beef you would like sliced as steaks or stew or even ground. On any given day you will find all poultry products, all cuts, available for purchase by the pound, bag or case. Are you looking for specialty products? No need to travel to different shops looking for ethnic culinary beef, veal, lamb or chicken ingredients, you can find them all here.
