Oak Hill Country Club is a 36-hole facility located in Rochester, NY. Both championship courses are designed by storied architect, Donald Ross. The East Course is consistently ranked as a top 25 course in the country and known as one of the greatest venues for championship golf.

In August of 2019, the East Course went through an extensive restoration project led by architect Andrew Green. With the success of the 2023 PGA Championship, Oak Hill has been selected to host the 2027 U.S. Amateur on both courses. Andrew will also lead the design of the future West Course Master Plan for the club. In the Fall of 2024, the club will renovate the practice facility with plans to redo both course irrigation systems in the near future.
